Redbows Launches 28-Page Celebration Hampers Catalogue

Redbows has released its Christmas 2007-2008 Celebration Hampers catalogue. Each of its 28-pages is packed with inspirational ideas and gifts for promotional campaigns, with a total of sixty-nine individual hampers and baskets to choose from.

Christmas is one of the busiest periods for promotional hampers and gifts suppliers like Redbows, and this year promises to be even busier thanks to the new range. There is generally no limit to the contents that can be found in a Redbows hamper which can range in sophistication from large family-sized baskets to smaller, more personal items.

Top-of-the range hampers include the Pearl and Opal products which retail for around £500 plus delivery and VAT. These hampers are packed with every possible luxury food and drink item with a focus on the finest ingredients and best possible gourmet sources. Smaller gifts baskets can start from around £18.50 for a fine wine selection pack. A popular Christmas thank you gift basket is the Champagnes and Truffles box. In addition to these types of Christmas gifts, the company can also supply fruit cakes, mince pies and other festive delights. The list is simply endless in terms of how the hampers and gifts baskets can be filled with vegetarian options also available.

“We are seeing more and more clients spend their November and December budgets on these types of personalised gifts” commented Dawn Koffler, Managing Director. “Our range is large enough to cater for most client budgets and we can also offer a full personalisation and bespoke fulfilment service as required.”

In addition to the hampers and gifts baskets the catalogue also shows the ranges of beers, wines and champagnes available from Redbows. These can all be personalised and supplied in a variety of quantities and packing materials.
